TIMES-VIRGINIA

A LIVELY WEEKLY NEWSPAPER AT HISTORIC APPOMATTOX COURT HOU

Officials cite weather hazards

Beware of winter dangers

The second snow of the season hit Appomattox County on Sunday morning even though Old Man Winter didn't officially arrive until late last (Tues.) night.

The snow, which began falling in this area a little before 10 a.m. on Sunday, transformed all outdoors into a winter wonderland before tapering off a little before mid-afternoon.

Although there were a lot of minor accidents due to the weather conditions there were no major traffic accidents reported in this area according to a spokesman for the Virginia State Police.

Even the most careful drivers will often find themselves in serious trouble when attempting to drive on snow and ice. When road conditons are reported to be hazardous, it is wise to stay off the roads unless absolutely necessary.

In addition to an increase in traffic accidents snowfall brings with it the danger of heart attacks, according to a report of the American Heart Association.

The danger of a heart attack is greatly increased by the strenuous activity of shoveling a path through new fallen snow.

It is wise, for those individuals with a history of any kind of heart disease, to consult their doctor and get his approval before attempting to clear the walk or driveway.

Even men and women who have no symptoms of heart disease should proceed with caution when shoveling snow.

Caution is the word, even if one is physically fit. Clearing away snow is hard work and it is wise to take frequent rest periods and quit when you feel tired. It is better to be safe than sorry.

The wetter the snow, the heavier it is and a full shovel of snow can weigh as much as or more than a scoop of coal.

W. R. Britton, Jr., Emergency and Energy Services Coordinator for Appomattox County has provided information regarding winter storms and some percautions that can be taken to avoid problems.

The terms WATCH and WARNING are used for winter snow storms as well as other natural hazards.

The WATCH alerts the public that a storm has formed and is approaching the area. Individuals in the alerted areas should keep listening to the latest advisories over the radio and television and begin to take precautionary measures.

A WARNING means that a storm is imminent and immediate action should be taken to protect life and property.

Some winter storm tips follows that will make for greater safety and comfort.

GET INDEPENDENT . . . Check battery powered equipment, heating fuel, food and other supplies. Areas may be without electricity for long periods of time.

DRESS FOR THE WINTER WEATHER . . . Layers of protective clothing keep one warmer than a single layer of clothing. Cover the mouth to protect the lungs from the extremely cold air.

TAKE WINTER DRIVING SERIOUSLY . . . Keep your car "winterized". Always carry a winter car kit containing equipment to help keep you warm, visible and alive if you are trapped in a winter snow storm. If you are trapped in a blizzard, avoid overexertion and exposure; stay in your vehicle (but keep it ventilated). Turn on dome light at night.

WINTER WORDS OF WARNING: ICE STORMS,FREEZING RAINS, FREEZING DRIZZLE, means that a coating of ice is expected. HEAVY means that the weight of the ice will cause extra damage. SNOW means a steady fall unless occasional or intermittent is, used. HEAVY SNOW means a fall of four to six or more inches is expected within the next 12 hours of six or more inches in the next 24 hours. Heavy snow can mean two or three inches of snow where winter storms are infrequent.

SNOW FLURRIES means intermitent snowfall that may reduce visibility. SNOW SQUALLS are brief, intense falls of snow accompanied by gusty winds.

COMMUNITY RESPONSE to a plea for help for the need has been overwhelming, according to Mildred Elliott, Appomattox County's 1982 Christmas Mother. Mildred (left), her husband Francis, and Appomattox Volunteer Services Coordinator Jenny Fratrick were busy this week packing boxes containing food, clothing and toys which will be distributed to approximately 100 needy families in Appomattox County this Christmas. American Federal Savings and Loan Association, Farmers National Bank, and Central Fidelity Bank will all be closed Friday in observance o Christmas. The financial institutions will be open from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m., and from 3 p.m. until 6 p.m. on Thursday.

The Times-Virginian Appomattox office will be closed Friday for Christmas.

MAUREEN O'DONNELL, a 17-year-old senior at Appomattox County High School, has been invited to join the Virginia Chorale for a tour of Europe this summer, from July 7 through July 25. The extensive tour will include stops in cities in Germany, France, Switzerland, Italy, and Austria. (Photo by Allen Austin)

European tour possible

By FRANCES H. PAULETTE

Maureen O'Donnell, a 17-year old senior at Appomattox County High School has been singing all of her life and loves it. Her love of music may enable her to tour Europe next summer.

"I've been in chorus class since the first grade," said Maureen, "and I love it more and more every year."

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brian O'Donnell of Appomattox, Maureen was born in Queens, New York. She lived on Long Island, New York until she was 13 years of age, when her family moved to Appomattox County.

"Although I have been singing since an early age, and studied music all the time I was in New York, nothing really started to happen until I moved here," she said.

"I've participated in the Virginia All-Regional Chorus for three years, '78-'79, '79-'80, and '81-'82," said O'Donnell.

Recently she participated in the Virginia Music Educators Association Concert Choir held in Richmond. Conductor for this concert was the well known and highly acclaimed Paul Salumanavich.

Because of her success as a 1982 Honors Choir member, O'Donnell has been extended a special invitation to join the 1983 Virginia Chorale for a tour of Europe next summer from July 7 through July 25.

The tour will include stops in Frankfurt, Germany; Luxemburg; Paris, France; DeJon, France; Luzern, Switzerland; Milano, Italy; Venice; Salsburg, Austria and Munich, Germany. There will be concerts in most of these cities in which Maureen will be participating.

Director for these concerts will be Robert N. Stambach, a native of Roanoke. Approximately 40 singers from all over Virginia will participate in the tours.

Participants in the tour will be sponsored by various civic clubs, churches and other groups in their given area. Maureen will be seeking sponsors to help defray the cost of the tour.

Any club or group interested in helping sponsor Maureen may do so by calling Mrs. O'Donnell at 993-2659.

Students from all over the state of Virginia will make up the Virginia Chorale and they are selected entirely on the recommendations of their own choral director. Appomattox County High School Choral Director is Steve Lawrence.

"I am really looking forward to the tour," said Maureen and added, "I really appreciate the hard work and dedication that Mr. Lawrence has put into our music department. He has done so much for us, especially those in the Madrigal Chor. He's really appreciated by all of us."

There is a bit of magic in Christmas. Across the sweep of centuries there is an outflowing of goodwill and peace that engulfs the problems, the ills of the hour. Even joblessness and financial worries are soothed in a belief that the good things in life and the good people in the world are a mighty fortress. Each Christmas we keep a rendezvous with faith and hope. And it is good that it is so. Family and church are twin ties to boost the Christmas spirit. Family gatherings, exchange of gifts, holiday meals, are stronger than Elmer's Glue-All to hold us together; church programs adorn the season with the sound of music and the ancient teachings of history. So, it is first down and goal to go. Merry Christmas everyone and please make it a safe one.

Joke from the note pad. There had been an evening of singing Christmas Carols at the church event. As the young people were leaving, the leader asked Little Susie which Carol she liked best. Susie blushed and whispered, "If you must know. I like Carroll Brown best."

Joining me in a December 21 birthday were Jane Fonda, 45; Phil Donahue, 47; Paul Winchell, 60; Chris Evert Lloyd, 28. Among others with birthdays during Christmas week: Lady Bird Johnson, Gene Rayburn, Ava Gardner, Barbara Mandrell, Tony Martin, Sissy Spacek, Xab Calloway.

Still watching, but am getting gorged on TV football. I counted up and there are at least 15 Bowl Games. But one thing you can count on: whether it be football, basketball, baseball, tennis, boxing or checkers, America is sports conscious and the media and advertisers know that a sure way to reach people is to feed'em sports.

Just before midnight Tuesday, Winter arrived. Officially, that is. Actually, I count Winter as here with the first dip of the thermometer below freezing and snow on the ground.

They are all home for Christmas. My birds are around the windowside feeder. The circle became unbroken with the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Chickadee. Ev en the two cardinals welcomed them.

Where are the stocking caps? For years I have had one, red and white, in my closest. You go first, and I will follow. Keeps the ears warm.

Have you noticed that no matter how bad the weather, the next TV or radio newscast will report of someplace a lot worse off. Okeh. Makes you feel you are better off where you are. I'll buy that.

• • •

Seems to me that Christmas business has been good. Appomattox is a Growing Town and Christmas Shopping helps us along.

Thanks for reading. Have a great Christmas. And '83 is coming up fast on the outside.

Facial Contrasts

JUDGING FROM THE EXPRESSION on his face, Andrew Sefter, 16-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sefter of Appomattox, isn't too happy with this Santa business. But, sitting on Santa's other knee is his six-year-old sister Meg, wearing a happy smile. She's wise enough to know that Santa means good things on Christmas morning. Andrew and Meg were among the approximately 315 youngsters who enjoyed breakfast with Santa Dec. 4, an annual event sponsored by the Appomattox Junior Woman's Club. Parents who had their children's photos taken with Santa may pick them up at Appomattox Office Supply. (Photo by Allen Austin)
